

I am concerned about consolidation of media ownership. We already have a small number of companies controlling the vast majority of media outlets and thereby controlling public opinion. In order for a democracy to work properly, we need to be exposed to a diversity of viewpoints. Encourage more public ownership of media.